

Dj Pinye

BAND STORY

"For the better part of the nineties Peter Chuani a.k.a. Pinye has been an echo in the minds of many partygoers in East Africa. Being the head of Groove Squad, and also the most influential He has been a pioneer in most aspects when it comes to spinning discs in Kenya. NU had a chance to speak with none other than DJ Pinye. Please give us a short background on yourself. I'm 28 years old. I have one sister and three brothers. I grew up in Nairobi, Kenya. Went to St. Gee (Georges) Primary School, then one to Pumuanu High School. After high school I joined Creative Art Centre in Nairobi Kenya. After completing my studies there, I joined the Kenya Polytechnic to do a diploma in Graphic Design also known as Commercial Arts. "
