Loving Me Some Nappy Nappy Video

See the New Video "Loving Me Some Nappy Nappy" by Spoken Word Performance Poet and Neo Soul BSide Artist Kamal Imani blesses the natural hair movement with his smooth and sometimes humorous and flirtatious delivery while filming at the get twisted dreadloc salon in Teaneck NJ. He is showing you how despite a lot of extra cosmetic and plastic images of stars in the media, you can be yourself and still be very desirable. This is a big up to all the people sporting dreads and nappy hair styles which show confidence in their natural beauty.

Kamal Imani blesses and bigs up our natural state of kinky and nappy hair. Being that some of us think that straight is better because that's what the "ruling" class has. This should be a non issue, but it's a reality in the Black community so Kamal shines light on it.
